A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—A BOY FALLS INTO A WELL FORTY FEET DEEP AND ESCAPES UNHURT.—While Snipes, a lad in this city, fell in the well in the cellar of Mr. Doepf's Drug Store on Saturday evening, and strange to say, escaped unhurt.

Mr. Wm. Simpson, one of the druggists, was in the cellar drawing molasses, and saw the boy when he came down and started in the direction of the well. When he next looked towards the door the boy was missing. He hurried to the well which was partly open, but owing to the darkness could not discover anything. He then called, and the boy answered. When asked if he was hurt, the boy said he was not only hurt, but could not find his hat.

The well was forty feet deep, with a force pump in it. At the distance of twenty-five feet a couple of wood braces were inserted in the well to support the pump. The aperture was sufficiently large for the boy to pass on to the bottom, but fortunately he caught on the support, and was taken from his perilous situation unhurt, with the loss of his hat, which he seemed regret.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Attorney General Shipps, returned to the city yesterday from the West. He reports the prospect as bright and brightening.

OFFICIAL BIAS.—Let the people of North Carolina "rejoice and be exceedingly glad" that in the overwhelming election of Horace Greeley, our State will get rid of the present "hangars on" around the government officers in the city of Raleigh. We will state one instance that has occurred during the progress of the Radical Ku Klux trials before Commissioner Best. After he had decided to bind the defendant Mack Jones, over to the Circuit Court upon the plainest and most convincing testimony, Henry M. Miller, the deputy U. S. Marshall, tells the negroes present "Now you see what they will do to you if Greeley is elected. See what they have done now."

This same Marshall, whose duty it was to preserve order and decorum in this Court room, so deported himself, that Mr. Mason, one of the counsel for the prosecution, asked that another officer be summoned to take charge of the witnesses that had been separated by mutual consent of counsel, that the bias of this officer had been so apparent, that the Court could not in justice permit the witnesses to be trusted with him. On Saturday it was apparent that Mr. Miller exercised an unbecoming influence in the trial of Mack Jones for an officer of the Court—but thank heaven, "our day of deliverance draweth nigh."

THE RAG TAIL PROCESSION.—Saturday about 3 o'clock, we were attracted to the street window by the sound of three drums and a life in full blast on Fayetteville street. We saw about fifty small negro boys in procession, and upon enquiring, learned that there was to be a pow wow, at Temple's cross Roads, in the vicinity of San Domingo—Save Rags—Oberlin—Morganton, and the city delegation were "marching on." We did not learn the names of the orators, but supposed it was the usual crowd.

THE RADICAL KU KLUX OUTRAGES.

Trial Before United States Commissioner Best.

The Conviction of Shadrick Jones.

THE CROSS CASE.

PROCEEDINGS.

The U. S. Commissioners Court R. W. Best, presiding, met yesterday at Mr. Best's office on Hillsborough street, at 10 o'clock.

The case of the U. S. vs Shadrick Jones, was first called.

Mr. Mason, Counsel for the prosecution, desired to call the attention of the Court to a late action of Chief Justice Pearson in a similar case and proceeded to argue briefly on the point.

Mr. Argo replied to Mr. Mason.

Commissioner Best then delivered his opinion in the case binding the prisoner over to the U. S. Circuit Court in the sum of $500.

T. S. vs Mack Jones, col., charged with an attempt to assault upon Samuel G. Cross, colored, in violation of the enforcement act of Congress.

T. M. Argo, Esq., appeared for the defense and Messrs. George V. Strong and Lewin W. Barringer for the prosecution.

Samuel G. Cross sworn. On the night of the 16th of July there was a torch light procession formed at Fentress' Taylor shop on Wilmington street, connected with the Greeley and Brown Ratification meeting.

The march was down Fayetteville street, and passing the Farborough House, halted at Tucker Hall. I invited the bystanders present to go up to the Hall. Some one in the crowd says I went no invitation from a G-d-d-n s-b-b-h and to get off, we went no d-n Greeley negroes round here. I said I was a free man and had a right to stand anywhere and could not be driven off. If you don't go off we will whip you away, or words to that effect. I said I would not go off anywhere, when the crowd circled around me, a person says you G-d-d-n Greeley Yankee, at the same time striking me. Knowing there was a disposition on the part of some of the colored men to attack me during the day I had taken measures for personal security, and drew from my pocket a razor. I am a barber by profession. When I received the lick, some one in the crowd knocked it out of my hand, another party placed his foot on the razor, but I regained it. On rising I was struck by a rock or brick bat, which somewhat stunned me, though I dodged the missile which saved me from its full force.

The crowd increased so I ran down the street, followed by a crowd, hallowing kill the Greeley negro, kill him, &c., &c. I turned into Hargett street; in my flight, I was overtaken opposite W. H. Overby's, on Hargett street, by the mob, when I wheeled around and used my razor in self defence. Stones and missiles were thrown at me. They halted for one instant when I drew my razor, when I ran again into Wilmington street and up to the rear of Tucker Hall, the crowd stopped at the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets where the old Pepper building is being torn down, here I saw them replenishing their stock of bricks, when I ran back to the store of J. L. Overby, of whom I asked protection, the crowd rushed in on me; I went behind the counter. Immediately afterwards Henderson Dunston, a policeman, came in, I asked his protection, he promised to do so. He then carried me to Police Headquarters for protection, the crowd following me to the door of the Station House. After remaining at the Station House three quarters of an hour, the Sergeant of the Police stated that he would go with me home, I told him I would like to go to Tucker Hall to hear the speaking. He escorted me to the Hall, where I remained till after the speaking, when I went home unmolested between 11 and 12 o'clock.

A rigid and thorough cross examination ensued, in which the witness Cross stated that he was a native of New York, came to this State six years ago as a teacher. Sent South by the New York State Benevolent Society; was appointed a provisional Justice of the Peace by Governor Holden for Granville county, and was afterwards elected to the same position by Republican voters; came to Raleigh as a barber seven months ago.

Otho Crabtree, Esq., was next sworn. Knows the defendant, Mack Jones, recognizes the defendant as the person. I was on the street the day of the occurrence, as stated in Cross' testimony, and in speaking of defendant says he was in the crowd that attacked Cross, and if he could have come up with him, he would have killed him. He said that Cross had gotten into a row at Tucker Hall with Primus Haywood about a lantern, and then run, and he joined with the crowd to brick bat him.

Charles Tucker, colored, sworn: I was in front of Tucker Hall on the night of the 17th, saw Cross run from the crowd, followed by a crowd of men, shouting kill the Honoree Greeley son-of-a-b-b, stones and sticks were thrown at him, heard the words kill the Greeley negro, several times at different places.

J. R. Meadows, sworn. Saw the crowd pass our store door on Hargett street on the night of July 16th after S. G. Cross. I heard one say which I recognized as Primus Haywood say catch him, catch him, G-d-d-n we will give him Greeley.

No witnesses introduced by the defense.

L. W. Barringer, opened the argument for the prosecution, briefly but to the point.

Mr. Argo replied and was followed by Col. Strong.

The Commissioner bound over the defendant in the sum of $1000.

ROYAL ARCH.—There will be a called meeting of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock, for work. All Royal Arch Masons in good standing are invited.

THE "KROIS" SHOW.—The "Ingins" spread their canvass on Nash square Friday, paraded the streets with music, with a procession of Ingins, and opened the show at 3 o'clock, P. M.

The war dance, trail, Pocahontas saying Jno. Smith, and the courting scene were somewhat stale, but of interest to those who never before saw the "noble man of the forest" whom Artemus Ward says is "pizen whenever found."

The gymnastic exercises of the young Indian Chief, and Madeamorisel Rosta, were very good and well worth the price of admission. The comic songs and dances were well rendered, the educated horse and trick mule performed the usual role allotted to them, and all passed off as a success in its line.

THE WARRENTON GAZETTE.—We hail with gladness the reappearance of this sterling sheet, under the excellent editorial management of Henry A. Foote Esq.

Mr. Foote, one of the rising young lawyers of the State, is a strong and forcible writer and will make the Gazette a powerful ally in the great cause of government reform. The typographical appearance of the Gazette, is decidedly neat and attractive, its columns are full of good, sound and practical matter, and it will doubtless take its position in the front rank of the weeklies of the State. Great and permanent success to you, old friend.

IN MEMORIAM.

GREGORY.—At 1111 Hill, his residence in Granville county, July 7th, Mrs. NANCY GREGORY.

The undersigned brief notice will announce to many friends the conclusion of a life full of beauty and usefulness. The event was sudden, though long and long, and the sickness not entirely unanticipated. Considering it a sacred privilege permitted me, I thought I would briefly state in the character of this estimable lady who has so recently left us. With faith fervent and unflinching devotion to duty, she made her life a life of self-sacrifice and unselfishness. Her heart was rich in the resources of the best benevolence, and her mind was ever intent on the performance of practical kindness. In all the relations of life, wife, mother, sister, neighbor and friend, she was pure and good and true, and no selfish sentiment ever entered to serve her benevolence. Her noble and generous heart was stamped upon her countenance that death's seal can never cancel, when sleeping, and in the minds of her loved ones, as the wealth of maternal tenderness and devotion she possessed, will ever keep her memory green in the hearts of her children, as the evergreen hedge so beautifully formed around her premises by her hand and placed by nature from her grave, around her loved church, stand as a living monument. Truly has it been said: "To live in her memory we leave behind."

Is not to die.

With such a life that has passed in the dark clouds of the unknown, let us view with the clear eye of loving faith, these clouds the perfection of those lovely qualities that existed in her transitory life.

With many personal endearments, the unselfish gifts so freely dispensed to her children, her friends, her neighbors, and many a lash will drop with the tear of sympathy for those she loved, and who were so dear to her. Her latest descendant will honor, as a benevolent channel from means that Providence has blessed her with, and as she was trying times I truly offer this monument to one I then learned to love with affection, and have known to be faithful in every trust. Not only were the calls made for sick and wounded answered by her, but she was ever ready to be taken to her hospitable home to be carefully nursed and provided for by her own hands, and when we, the survivors, of her death will meet as a personal affliction, in that best land of love may we remember the kindly heart that will be sweet and lasting peace, is the sincere wish of

VICTORY BEFORE US!

The Democratic party can achieve a glorious victory on the first day of August if it will only put forth its hands and grasp the prize!

We have a white registered majority in this State of forty thousand voters.

The white Radical strength has never been estimated at more than from twelve to fifteen thousand.

The negroes have never cast more than eighty thousand votes.

Give the Radicals the combined negro vote of eighty thousand and white Radical vote of fifteen thousand, and this calculation is too high an estimate, and the Democrats will then have from fifteen to twenty thousand majority on a full vote.

If twenty thousand Democrats stay away from the polls on the first day of August, the election will go for the Radicals by default.

How important it is that every vote against Radicalism be polled!

Freemen! North Carolinians! you now have the opportunity to redeem your impoverished and outraged State. Will you do it?

We call upon our friends in every County to arouse themselves for the sake of the cause we have at stake.

Let there be no apathy nor indifference anywhere in our ranks.

This is no time for inaction or faltering.

A weighty responsibility rests upon each individual voter—a responsibility he cannot escape.

Our mother State appeals to us to come to her rescue!

We can win the victory over Radicalism.

Who will shrink in the hour of trial?

Who will prove recreant to the sacred obligations resting upon every true son of the State, to labor for her salvation and amelioration.

Victory is before us! Shall we seize the opportunity or not?

Fellow-citizens of North Carolina, the question is for you to decide.

A victory will bring you peace, honest government, civil liberty, happiness, prosperity. Do not let inaugurate another reign of terror, Radical misrule, oppression, profligacy and crime!

Can you hesitate?

Can you doubt as to your duty?

Will you not go forward and aid in the redemption of North Carolina?

VICTORY IS BEFORE YOU!

You have but to reach out your hands and the prize is yours!

Carolinians, to the rescue! Lift up your mother State from the dust and set her free!

Who, in utter defiance of the law deprived numbers of our best citizens of their rights of personal liberty, and refused to allow them to be released or bailed until Judge Brooks came to their rescue, and vindicated the power of habeas corpus and the principles of the civil law?

The Radical Administration of 1870.

Who put in the Constitution a clause requiring the census to be taken every ten years in this State, at a cost of one hundred thousand dollars, when that work is done by the Federal Government without cost to the State? The Radicals.

REPUBLICANS DECLARING FOR GREELEY.

We stated a few days since that Gen. Henry W. W. Robbins and G. M. Roberts were reported to have declared for Greeley. We gave the information upon the statement of a prominent and distinguished citizen of the West. Our informant heard Gen. Henry make a Greeley speech at one of the Courts. The Asheville Pioneer says the report is not true as to Messrs. Roberts and Robbins. Very well. But we can inform the Pioneer that we have reports of accessions to the Greeley and Brown ticket of other Republicans in this State, and our information leads us to believe that before November next, there will be hundreds of others who will follow their example.

The Wilmington Star of Friday contained a card signed by E. H. McQuigg and J. M. Wise, who have heretofore acted with the Radical party, giving in their adhesion to Greeley and Brown.

It is reported that three colored Radicals in the last Legislature, Leary of Cumberland, Cawthorn of Warren and Reavis of Granville, have declared for Greeley. Leary and Cawthorn are known to have done so, and we were informed by a gentleman from Granville yesterday that Reavis had likewise.

Who enforced the State Radical Administration of 1870-71, and expressed admiration and gratitude for W. W. Holden for his past course? The Radical Convention which nominated Tod R. Caldwell.

Who arrested John Kerr and Josiah Turner, Jr. and other innocent men, and thrust them into dungeons with convicts and thieves?

Kirk and his myrmidons, under authority of the Radical Governor of the State.

DON'T FORGET!

REGISTRATION IS NOT ALLOWED ON ELECTION DAY.

SILAS BURNS.

Silas Burns, the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, has written to us that he was not on the Penitentiary Committee but that he was on the Committee to investigate the Penitentiary swindle. He says this committee was composed of W. L. Love, "a staunch Democrat," G. W. Welker and himself. Mr. Burns says if he is guilty of swindling in this matter so is our friend Love.

We give Burns the benefit of his statement, as we would not knowingly do him an injustice. It was not the fact that he was on the Committee any evidence of itself of any fraud or swindling on his part. Because he might have been a member of the committee and still opposed the Penitentiary swindle.

But we shall not let off this aged political trickster and scurvy Radical quite so easily as this.

We charge, upon the sworn testimony of R. W. Lassiter, Radical Senator from Granville, that it was upon Burns' representations that Lassiter, as a member of the Committee to locate the Penitentiary, relied chiefly and was induced to favor Lockville.

In the testimony of Mr. Lassiter, page 119, Fraud Commission, we find the following reasons why C. L. Harris, Chairman of the Penitentiary Committee reported in favor of Lockville as the site for the Penitentiary:

"The substance of his (C. L. Harris) report, together with the representation made by other persons as to minerals, water-power, agricultural lands, and forest timber, induced the Committee after some delay to close the trade.

AMONG THOSE WHO MADE THESE REPRESENTATIONS WAS SILAS BURNS, who lives at Lockville and being a practical machinist, I relied on his judgment as to the quality of the iron ore which was said to be on said land, but about which the said Burns was mistaken as to location, as he informed me at a subsequent time."

Thus by a MISTAKE of Silas Burns, the great "practical machinist" and Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, the State of North Carolina was swindled!

Is such a man fit to be elected to the position of Superintendent of Public Works? This wonderful mechanical genius—this great practical machinist—this aspirant for official position, made a FATAL MISTAKE, according to Mr. Lassiter's sworn evidence, in regard to the iron ore at Lockville!

Fellow-citizens of North Carolina, will you vote for a man so utterly incompetent and inefficient? If you should put him in office, his next error might be even more serious than this.

Again, Mr. Burns informs us that he did not vote to rescind the resolution in the Senate to abolish the Bragg Committee. We have not the Senate Journal before us, but will give Burns the benefit of this statement also. He says he was not present Saturday or Monday, when the matter was up in the Senate, not being in Raleigh at that date.

Let us look at the facts in the case. We charged upon Brodgen and Burns that they were present at Littlefield's oyster supper given at the National Hotel, in February 1870, when speeches were made in favor of abolishing the Bragg Committee, and the next day or soon thereafter, the said Committee was abolished.

We give the following from Lassiter's sworn testimony on this subject. The italics and capitals are of course our own:

"The refreshments were composed of cigars, oysters and wine. After the oyster supper was over, there was general conversation, and speeches made by Brodgen, Burns, Littlefield and others."

The speeches were party speeches and the subject of the Bragg Committee was alluded to, and the manner of its appointment, to-wit, the President going out of the Senate to select it, was disapproved of, and it was alleged in some of the speeches, perhaps all, that the Committee had been raised to prosecute inquiries and make investigations to furnish capital for the approaching campaign in the Summer and like reasons."

Now, if Burns dodged a vote in the Senate on the repeal of the Committee, by running off, it is evident from Mr. Lassiter's testimony that he was present at Littlefield's oyster supper, partook of Littlefield's refreshments, of his cigars, oysters and wine, and made a speech on that interesting occasion.

Oh! Silas! Silas! you should have preserved silence on these matters! We thank thee for writing us that letter!

Do you imagine! No! no! We impale you upon the sworn testimony of your Republican brother Lassiter! First, that great mistake of yours about the iron, and secondly, that great speech of yours at Littlefield's meeting, called to favor the repeal of the Bragg Committee.

Who plunged the State, already impoverished by the effects of the war, into a new debt of fifteen millions of dollars—thus ruining her credit, and bringing greater poverty and bankruptcy upon her people? The Radical party.

THE Radical Legislature cost the people over $435,000.

The Conservative Legislature cost only $199,000. A saving to the people every year of about $236,000.

In the single matter of pay of officers at the Capitol, the Conservative Legislature has saved the people over $13,500 every year.

GOOD NEWS FROM MOORE COUNTY.

We publish with pleasure the following letter from a highly esteemed citizen of Moore County, giving an account of our prospects in that County.

We have before had very favorable accounts from "glorious little Moore"—some of our friends claiming it by four hundred majority:

BYVANT'S CROSS ROADS, N. C., July 15th, 1872.

Editors News, Raleigh, N. C.:

Thinking it might interest you and your readers to hear from Moore county, I will inform you that the people of our county are in high spirits regarding the political prospects of the county, State and nation. We Conservatives feel confident that we shall elect our county ticket. It is composed of some of our best citizens, gentlemen whose characters are unstained in any manner, whilst the Radicals have a very weak ticket.

I think we will give Merriam three hundred majority over oily Tod, and since the people have heard from the Baltimore Convention, we have concluded to support Greeley for President, though he is a Republican. We believe he is honest, and has shown by his acts towards the South, that he does not desire to oppress the Southern people in our impoverished condition. If all the counties will do as well in voting as we believe old Moore will do, I think the day is not far distant when we shall be freed from Radical rule and carpet-bag government.

Who was the first signer of the infamous Radical address of 1868, which emanated from the brain of reckless politicians?

TOD R. CALDWELL, the Radical candidate for Governor.

Who announces in his public speeches that he is in favor of giving Grant power to suspend habeas corpus in North Carolina at his pleasure?

Tod R. Caldwell.

THE RADICAL KULUX.

Read the account in our local columns of the disgraceful conduct of the Radical Ku Klux negroes, in recently assaulting in this city, Craven and Cross, two colored Greeley Republicans.

It will be seen that the perpetrators have been bound over to Court.

Let prudence and discretion be exhibited by our party in this contest.

Everything will be done to provoke collisions and disorder. Nothing would please the Radicals better than to see riots and bloodshed.

Democrats, be calm—quiet, but maintain your rights firmly.

That branch of the State Executive Committee for the Conservative party of North Carolina appointed for the 5th Congressional District will meet in Greensboro on the 27th inst., for the purpose of appointing a Presidential Elector for that District. The Committee consists of Hon. D. W. Courts, J. I. Seales, Col. E. B. Withers, and W. M. Robbins.

WHERE IS HESTER?

The telegraph informs us that Cornwall, the accomplice of Hester in abducting Dr. Bratton on British soil and after the use of violence and chloroform, bringing him a prisoner to the United States, has been tried—convicted and is now in a Canadian Penitentiary. Dr. Bratton was examined on the trial. We supposed Hester has been demanded from our Governor. But where is this notorious spy and detective? Echo answers, where?

CHALLENGE THEM.

There are thousands of negroes in this State under age who have been voting at every election.

This should not be allowed at the next election.

Every voter must be 21 years of age, and must have resided in the township 30 days preceding the election.

Watch the polls, and stop all illegal voting.

MASS MEETING AT MARION.

There will be a Great Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Marion, McDowell county, on Monday, July 24th. Gov. Vance, Gen. Ransom, Hon. Frank E. Shober, Josiah Turner, Jr., Judge Carpenter, and others will be present. Every body is invited. The Salisbury Brass Band will be on hand.

MANY CITIZENS.

See that your name is on the registration books of your township before election.

You cannot register on election day, unless you become twenty-one years of age on that day.

You must register and vote in your township. No certificate of registration is now given.

"BY THEIR FRUITS YE SHALL KNOW THEM."

This is the title of an excellent little circular, published by authority of the Conservative Club, at Greensboro. We have made use of it by taking several good extracts for this issue.

The circular contains some hard hits at Judge Settle, but the language is not personal nor abusive.

DEATH OF HON. A. H. ARRINGTON.

By special telegram, we learn that Mr. Arrington died at his residence in Nash Saturday morning.

A Contrast.

Taxable property of the State of North Carolina in 1860, $291,297,602

Taxable property of North Carolina in 1870, 130,378,622

Taxation for State purposes in 1860, 513,643

Taxation for State purposes in 1870, 1,160,413

Taxation for county purposes in 1860, 255,117

Taxation for county purposes in 1870, 923,624

Average cost of conducting the State government for three years (1868, 1869 and 1870), 137,977

Average cost for three years (1868, 1869 and 1870), 576,738

Public debt of North Carolina in 1861, 9,699,500

Public debt of North Carolina in 1871, 34,387,465

From these figures it appears that the State debt has been increased nearly fourfold since the war, (for the war debt is included), as also have been the yearly expenses of the State and the county taxes each; while, although the taxable property has decreased one half, the taxation for State purposes has doubled. These figures are more eloquent than any speech can be of the condition of the State under Radical reconstruction.

In the Convention of '66 when the effort was made by Conservatives to establish a law per diem, Tod Caldwell worked hard against it, doing all he could in speeches and by personal influence to put it at a high figure, alleging as a reason that they were poor out in his country and they wanted to make some money.

Tod is now abusing Conservatives and trying to make it appear that they are in favor of a high per diem.

The Radical Legislature for the years 1869 and 1870, cost the people $981,152.80.

The Conservative Legislature cost the people for the years 1870 and 1871, $487,719.32

The difference, $493,433.48

STATE MATTERS.

GREENVILLE is improving in the way of building.

A hotel, containing fifteen rooms, is about to be erected at Battleground.

John W. Bates, Esq., is an independent candidate for Sheriff in Granville.

Far out crop in the Salem section is larger than it has been for many years.

The Wadesboro Argus says the corn crop is growing too fast in that corner.

Mr. M. STAFFORD has been nominated by Stokes and Forsythe counties for the Senate.

The Robesonian says the crop prospects are better in that county than was reported before.

There is to be a grand conservative meeting in Goldsboro' on Tuesday, July 30th. Prominent speakers have been invited to address the people on that occasion.

The Reidsville Record says: The tobacco trade for the past week has improved—been quite brisk—the Piedmont sold last Wednesday 9,000 pounds at an average of 12 cents. We suppose the other houses did good business, also. The common grades the prices have advanced—have declined on the finer grades.

The Wilson Ledger says: On last Saturday evening the business portion of the town was destroyed by fire, four stores burned; loss very light, all insured by F. B. & L. Bass, their loss is estimated to be twenty-five hundred dollars and no insurance. The fire originated in drawing Kerosene oil from a barrel by holding a candle too near.

It is stated in the newspapers that the National Executive Committee at Washington have authorized their agents in the various Democratic counties of the State to pay one thousand dollars to any Democrat who can be induced to become an independent candidate in any county where there is no prospect of electing an out and out Radical.

The Wilmington Star says: During the severe thunder storm of Wednesday last the lightning struck the grape arbor of Mr. Sterling Stallings, on Main Street, and setting the green grass on fire badly around the arbor, which he had been trying in vain to burn for some time past. Two of the children of Mr. Stallings were considerably shocked by the electric fluid.

The Wilmington Journal says: We learn from a private letter that the prospects in Duplin are of the most cheering character. An esteemed friend of the paper, who is a Democrat, is one of the most exciting ever had in that county. The people come out in large numbers every day to hear our candidates, Mr. Komegaye, the independent candidate, retired from the contest on Saturday.

The Radical candidates are J. E. Russell, who also pretends to be an independent Democrat, and a Mr. Pennington, a thorough Radical and a supporter of Littlefield and Swenson measures of 1868 and 1869, while a member of the Legislature from Wayne. The "corruption fund" is being freely used to charter free bar rooms in favor of Radicals.

The Wilmington Star says: In another column we publish a communication from E. H. McQuigg, Esq., a prominent Republican of this city, announcing his determination to support Greeley and Brown in the pending canvass. Mr. McQuigg is well known in this city, where, up to the present campaign, he has invariably acted with the Republican party. He was in the Union Army five years, having been wounded at Gettysburg, where he was promoted for meritorious services on the field, he having enlisted as a private in the 13th New York Regiment. After the war he was detailed on duty in the Freedmen's Bureau at this place, in which position he acted until 1867, when he resigned and went into business. Ever since he has been old enough to vote he has been a consistent and unswerving Republican, but believing that the election of the ticket proposed at Cincinnati and emphatically endorsed and renominated at Baltimore is the only means of insuring peace and prosperity to our distracted country and doing away with the fraud and corruption which is so rife throughout her borders, he has determined to take a decided stand for Greeley and Brown.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

Butler's Cobb Crushed by Col. Carter—County Nominations in Berke—Northern Speakers—Good News from the East.

WINDSOR, N. C., July 16.

On last Saturday, the 13th instant, I arrived home from the Baltimore convention, in time to meet Col. Carter and Butler's Cobb at this place, according to appointment, and without going into detail relative to their speeches, I will simply say that Cobb was not only crushed, but as a politician, literally annihilated. Col. Carter has made a fine impression throughout the entire district and his election, I think, is a certainty.

Our delegation had a rich time in Baltimore, and all of them were highly pleased with the proceedings and result of the Convention. The Northern Democracy is in a blaze for Greeley, and evidently determined to make common cause with the friends of the Liberal Republic and Southern Democrats, in order to defeat the present corrupt and steady purpose has been to subvert the cardinal principles of constitutional liberty.

The Northern people say his throne of iniquity and usurpation has assumed such fearful proportions and startling potency that its shadow has so fallen upon their territory and vision as not to be inensible as to the character of coming events, in case he is re-elected. And they have pledged to buckle on their patriotic armor and battle with and for us, until "Liberty" of November, at which period they are confident the shouts of our victorious hosts will not only make the welkin ring, but the kingdom of a despot will be demolished, and the temple of liberty erected upon its ruins. Their eyes are turned with great solicitude to our August election. And well they may, and every other lover of liberty, for our success in November depends, to a great extent, upon it. North Carolina will be the first gun to fire in the cause of freedom and deliverance, and I trust that it may be so directed that the mercenary columns of our adversary shall be forever broken and dispersed, and the welcomed shout of victory shall reverberate from the hills of Maine to the gulf-washed shores of Louisiana.

Our country held a Convention here on the 13th, and nominated the following gentlemen:

Senate—Doctor Pritchard.

House of Representatives—Mr. Jos. B. Cherry.

Mr. Cherry's ability and reputation as a politician is too well known to need comment. Mr. Pritchard is a middle aged man, and though deprived of a classical education, is a man of fine sense, and makes a good speech. He is more than a match for the fallen Minister Holleman, of Northampton county, his corrupt opponent. I know but little about Holleman, but presume he was a mere biblical babbler, and his weaknesses induced some Radical to "strike him on the stomach with a piece of bread," and won him over to the cause of the devil. I say devil, for it is the cause of none other, when he becomes the herald or advocate of Radicalism.

I have no patience or confidence in such apostates, and believe a large majority are mean enough to betray their friends with a kiss, and sell their country for thirty pieces of silver. So did Judas and so would John Pool, who has so meanly slandered Judge Merrimon, Davie county.

A crowd of between three and four hundred arrived on the ground, anxious to hear our candidates speak, and it was noticeable that a very respectable number of ladies were present, most of them having ridden several miles from the adjoining country to attend the speaking.

The crowd frequently greeted our speakers with loud applause, and gentlemen inform me that the effect was fine and that votes were made. This, I think, was the finest effort Judge Merrimon has made since he left Greensboro.

Charles Price, Esq., is the Democratic candidate for the Senate from the District composed of the counties of Rowan and Davie and is opposed by Dr. J. G. Ramsey. I regret to say that Mr. Price is confined to his bed by sickness and consequently cannot at present take part in the canvass. The candidates for the House of Representatives are: Charles Anderson, Democrat, and N. W. Lillingston, Republican.

Gentlemen tell me that the feeling is strong for our candidates in this county, and that it will go Democratic.

The canvass will be a thorough one, and our ticket is gaining strength every day, notwithstanding the union leagues are being revived and held nightly meetings.

A stroke of policy is being played by the Republicans in Yadkin and Wilkes counties. The Revenue officials do not now raid on illicit distilleries, and have not been doing so for some time, trusting thereby to gain votes. They are resorting to all sorts of subterfuges and tricks to carry the West, but the people cannot be bought.

During our stay here, we have been most hospitably entertained by Mr. G. W. Johnson, to whom we are indebted for many acts of kindness. Judge Merrimon and myself will leave here in the morning for Gold Hill. Judge Shipley leaves this evening for Raleigh, on business and will join us again at Brower's Mills.

You can form no idea of the effect which the speeches of our candidates have had. People pronounce the arguments of Judge Merrimon unanswerable and he and Judge Shipley have done good wherever they have gone.

The feeling throughout the whole section of country through which we have passed is excellent. Our friends are hopeful and in fine spirits at our prospects. I have seen the people, been among them, heard them talk, and the Democrats of North Carolina may indeed congratulate themselves that their day of deliverance from Radical misrule is so near. The news which will go forth from the mountains of North Carolina in August will cause a thrill of joy to run through the hearts of the friends of liberty everywhere. The people approve of the nomination at Baltimore, and will give Greeley their cordial support.

Much good, we believe, has been accomplished by this campaign in the West, and it has inspired our friends with a new hope and determination, and stimulated them to renewed energy.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years.

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $2,000,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THE STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of Summe amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this Home Institution, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up Home Interests.

THE SONG OF A SUMMER.

BY LOUISE CHANDLER MOULTON.

I plucked an apple from off a tree,
Golden, and rosy, and fair to see—
The sunshine had fed it with warmth and light—
The dews had freshened it night by night.
And high on the topmost bough it grew,
Where the winds of heaven about it blew,
And while the mornings were soft and young,
The wild birds circled, and soared, and sung.
There in the storm, and calm, and shine,
It ripened and brightened, this apple of mine.
Till the day I plucked it from off the tree,
Golden, and rosy, and fair to see.
How could I guess, 'neath that daintiest rind,
That the core of sweetness I hoped to find—
The innermost, hidden heart of the bliss,
Which dews and winds and the sunshine's kiss
Had tended and fostered by day and night,
Was black with mildew and bitter with blight.
Golden and rosy, and fair of skin,
Noting but roses and ruin within.
Ah! never again with taint and pain
Will I strive the topmost bough to gain—
Though its wind-sweet apples are fair to see,
On a lower branch is the fruit for me.
